- 2. Identify public speaking situations

II. CONTENT

Topic: Principles of Speech Delivery

III. LEARNING RESOURCES

- A. Reference
 - Teacher's Guide: Oral Communication pages 44-50
 - Learners Material: Oral Communication in Context, pages 77-91

IV. PROCEDURE

Before the lesson

- A. Reviewing previous lesson or presenting the new lesson
The teacher reviews the activities conducted in the last session.

B. "Let's Warm Up" Activity

The learners will for groups with five members and will read the scenario below and then they will be given 10 minutes to prepare a speech.

You are the tourism ambassadors of the Philippines who are tasked to promote the best features of the country and its overall positive image to local and foreign visitors. Your task is to prepare and deliver a three-minute speech in a World Tourism Expo in London to convince the participants to visit the Philippines.

After the group's performance, two representatives from another group will be assigned by your teacher to provide feedback within three minutes based on the following questions:

- 1. What do you like most about the presentation?
- 2. How do you think can the speech be improved?

C. After completing Let's Warm Up, the learners will tick the column that determines how often they practice what the statements say. They will do this as objectively as possible. They can use their performance in Let's Warm Up as a basis in completing this task.
